4th Grade I CAN Statements

I can identify positive self-talk and express my personal thoughts and feelings along with using positive self-talk.

I can assess my role in the school and community as well as identify necessary responsibilities for both.

I can demonstrate respect for others personal opinions and ideas.

I can recognize and respect diverse groups within my school and community.

I can compromise in a variety of situations.

I can make safe and healthy choices in various life situations.

I can identify bullying and violence and use intervention strategies to help the victim.

I can use coping skills when life changes occur.

I can use study skills and test-taking strategies to improve my grades.

I can plan and organize in order to complete my assignments on time.

I can take responsibility for my learning.

I can set goals and assess steps necessary to achieve them.

I can compare my interests and strengths with jobs in my community.

I can identify school and community resources for exploration of the six career paths.

I can recognize the contributions of all jobs to the community.

I can relate to what I’m learning in school to each of the career paths.

I can research the training and educational requirements for a variety of careers.

I can work with and treat all types of people with respect.

I can make a portfolio.