5th Grade I Can..

I can identify and create two-dimensional art.

I can identify and use texture.

I can create colors on a color wheel.

I can create color values.

I can demonstrate a simple subtractive printmaking skill.

I can identify and create three-dimensional art.

I can build a form using coils.

I can create an architectural structure.

I can follow a theme in my artwork.

I can identify and create a portrait, landscape and still life with a theme.

I can identify and use contour lines.

I can identify and create art using symbolic shapes.

I can identify and create art using depth.

I can use objects in correct proportions.

I can identify and use asymmetrical balance.

I can talk about art using art vocabulary.

I can make connections between visual arts and other subjects.

I can use my art supplies correctly.

I can be neat and show control in my artwork.

I can read and write about art.