• I can analyze the impact of family systems.
• I can explore FCCLA benefits, opportunities and purposes.
• I can apply knowledge of child development and caregivers roles when caring for children.
• I can research careers and the qualities desired for career success.
• I can examine self-development skills.
• I can apply basic food preparation techniques, tools and equipment used, safety and sanitation practices and proper measuring techniques to prepare a food dish.
• I can identify and analyze the different parts of a budget and apply it to real life.