"I CAN:

Read & critique a variety of reading resources for information, recreation & personal growth.

Demonstrate an understanding of the organization of the library using the Dewey Decimal System & genre classification within the library.

Properly use circulation software & information retrieval resources such as the online card catalog & research resources.

Create & share a learning product that promotes reading to an authentic audience.

Perform media center tasks that require a coordinated effort & work with others to complete those tasks to support the needs of patrons.