A+ Participation Agreements:

Q) What is an A+ participation agreement?

A) An A+ participation agreement is a document signed by the students and his/her parent(s)/guardian(s) indicating an interest in the program. A) Signing this agreement does not restrict post-secondary options available to a student while in high school or upon graduation from high school.

Q) Does signing the participation agreement guarantee that a student will receive the financial incentive?

A) No. There are at least three factors that determine whether a particular student is eligible to receive the A+ financial incentive:

1. The high school from which the student graduates must meet and maintain all the requirements for A+ Schools designation.
2. The student must meet all the requirements of the A+ program.
3. State funding must be available.

Grade Point Average (GPA):

Q) Does a student qualify for A+ incentive funding if his/her high school GPA upon graduation is 2.45 (on a 4.0 scale)?

A) No, the A+ program does not permit the rounding up of the GPA.

Q) What is the policy with regard to the grade point averages figured for weighted classes and/or point scales other than 4.0?

A) For the purpose of the A+ program, a student's GPA must be 2.5 or better figured on a 4.0 scale. It is, therefore, the designated high school's responsibility to convert any recorded grades which include weighted classes and/or GPA calculated on a different scale to 4.0

Attendance:

- Q) In order to maintain the A+ Schools 95% attendance requirement, can students use after-school hours to make-up time for absences from school?
- A) No.
- Q) How is the 95% attendance rate calculated for eligibility purposes?
- A) The attendance rate is calculated over a 4-year period.

- A) Not automatically – absences related to the disability or disabilities specified in a student’s 504 plan should be carefully reviewed by district officials.
- Q) What is the policy for students who may become injured in an accident or sustain a long-term illness either of which preclude the student from meeting the required 95% attendance rate?
- A) When students are absent for an extended period due to accident or illness beyond his/her control, it will be the responsibility of the school to make “Application for Homebound Instruction” for the student. If a student can be counted for ADA, the homebound instruction can be counted toward the 95% attendance rate.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA):

- Q) What is the “Free Application for Federal Student Aid” (FAFSA)?
- A) According to the A+ law, eligible students must make “a good faith effort to first secure all available federal sources of funding” that do not require repayment before accessing A+ funds. This is accomplished by completing the FAFSA. Once the student completes the FAFSA form, it is submitted to the Department of Higher Education.
- Q) What is the Department of Higher Education’s deadline for submitting the FAFSA?
- A) The Department of Higher Education’s deadline is April 1.
- Q) Is the A+ high school required to monitor the submission of the FAFSA?
- A) A+ high schools should inform students and parents interested in the A+ program of the FAFSA requirement. A+ school personnel are encouraged but not required to monitor the submission of the FAFSA as well as other criteria to insure students receive post-secondary tuition reimbursement considerations.
- Q) What are the consequences if a student fails to complete the FAFSA?
- A) A student failing to file the FAFSA prior to graduation from high school jeopardizes his/her access to A+ funding. The failure to timely submit the FAFSA should not automatically result in the student being declared A+ ineligible by the high school. If all other A+ requirements have been met, the student is an eligible A+ graduate and his/her transcript should indicate such. However, if the FAFSA filing is not filed, the student should be made aware that A+ financial incentives will not be paid on their behalf.

- A) If the student's birthday falls after graduation, it will be the responsibility of the post-secondary institution to verify this through the FAFSA process.
